Welcome to ILLUMINATE 2014

Letter from the Director

Dear ILLUMINATES,

Welcome to the Illuminate family. You are now a cherished member of a global conscious cinema movement – one from which a “critical mass” or shift in consciousness will one day be reached.

Thanks to the likes of Oprah Winfrey, Deepak Chopra, MD, and Eckhart Tolle, yogis, scientists, and philosophers, the notion of elevated existence has gained momentum in Western civilization. But as I once heard Dara Marks say, “there’s little evidence that we grow and evolve just because it’s a good idea.” We grow either because we are compelled to survive or because we are inspired by possibility.

Possibility – whether in the form of abundance, love, happiness, health or enlightenment – is an innate part of storytelling, and for this reason, I have chosen film as a vehicle for making meaning of our existence and elevating human consciousness.

I invite you to relate courageously with each film - to the characters, their defects, their struggles, their victories and their lessons. It is here that the light of new consciousness is born. The movies are there not just to watch, but to experience. Expand your comfort zone and allow them to usher you forward.

Launching a festival is challenging, often maddening and inextricably fun. Launching a festival dedicated to the evolution of our collective mind, body and spirit is a journey unto itself and rewarding in ways I can’t explain.

I believe in giving credit where it is due, and, with that said, ILLUMINATE could not have materialized without the generous support of our Founding Circle Members - Bill Stankey, Daryl Kling and Lewis Guthrie, Tony Wolpert, and Denise Wolpert – each of whom took a great leap of faith.

Last, but far from least, I am eternally grateful to the ILLUMINATE Dream Team, the incredible beings who put this Festival together. I couldn’t be happier or luckier to have you all on this team and in my life. Thank you for your unwavering dedication, conscious presence, and support of this grand mission. I love you all.

Yours in oneness,

Death Makes Life Possible WORLD PREMIERE

With Post-Screening Conversation with Deepak Chopra, MD and Marilyn Schlitz, PhD
Director: Mark Krigbaum • Documentary Feature • USA • 2014 • 63 min

Death Makes Life Possible takes the viewer on a beautiful and ground-breaking journey through one of life's most taboo topics: death. A game-changer for anyone confronting issues of mortality - our own or others - the film presents compelling (and comforting) ideas on the mysteries of death, backed by scientific research and captivating stories from scholars, health professionals, spiritual teachers, scientists, children and those who have had near-death experiences. This film helps you consider the proposition that death could be the best thing in life.

Immediately after the film, Deepak Chopra, MD and Marilyn Schlitz, PhD will join us on-stage to discuss how to "evolve" our ideas around death. The luminaries suggest a veritable paradigm shift in cultural conditioning of this significant transition, suggesting that there is a better way to "do" death.

When My Sorrow Died: The Legend of Armen Ra & the Theremin ARIZONA PREMIERE

With Sound Journey Performance by Armen Ra
Director: Robert Nazar Arjoyan • Documentary Feature • USA • 2014 • 85 min

The mesmerizing style of Persian-Armenian theremin virtuoso Armen Ra, has garnered the admiration of fans on multiple continents. Filmmaker Robert Nazar Arjoyan chronicles Armen's day-to-day life, transporting us through Armen's earliest years as a child in Iran, to his wild time modeling and tearing up the New York drag scene, to his recovery from alcohol addiction. Along the way, we witness his triumphant transcendence into a world-renowned master of the theremin, the only instrument played without physically touching it, but rather through the vibrational interplay of human hands with its unique sensory detectors. The complex seven-octave theremin is extremely difficult to play, much less to master, and for that reason, it is no longer being made. Armen Ra's mastery of this other-worldly instrument qualifies him as one of the finest theremin players in the world today. And this film, a true sensory immersion, is also in a class all its own.

 Immediately following the film, the legendary Armen Ra will be performing live in an exclusive sound journey to demonstrate the healing power and hauntingly beautiful operatic sound of the theremin. Known for both his exceptional artistry and his eccentric theatrical appeal, Ra has performed in esteemed venues including the United Nations and Lincoln Center, and has appeared on CNN, HBO, MTV and in Vogue, The New York Times, The Village Voice, Rolling Stone and Glamour. Experience Armen Ra live and in person – you will be wowed by what you hear and feel.

 Sat, May 31st 9:00am • Mary D. Fisher Theater

After a job interview gone wrong, Lulu sets sail, leaving her husband and three children behind. But being a carefree adventurer is easier said than done. Along the way, our discreet heroine will have three key encounters: with an ex-con being protected by his brothers, an old woman who is literally being bored to death, and an unhappy waitress who's being mistreated by her boss. The surprise of love, the comfort of female intimacy, and a case of misplaced compassion are the three movements in this fugue which help Lulu find an old acquaintance she has lost touch with: herself.

A young man investigating the underworld of "factory farming" soon discovers a growing political and intellectual movement that considers animals as important as humans. Speciesism, deemed a paradigm-busting film by the Huffington Post, provides a fresh, compelling argument (perhaps the most compelling argument yet) on the controversial idea of equality of species and how the collective global consciousness could very well be shifting to include all life forms as sacred. You will never look at animals the same way again. Especially humans.

A true story of personal transformation captured on film. Addicted to drugs and morbidly obese, Frank Ferrante is a 54-year-old, 290-pound Sicilian-American from Brooklyn with Hepatitis C on the lookout for a quick fix. He hands his life over to the twenty-something owners of Café Gratitude, a raw-vegan restaurant in San Francisco, who commit to helping him change his ways over the course of 42 days, and in the process give him a second chance at finding love, fulfillment and happiness. May I Be Frank is a heartwarming story of redemption through sex, drugs and a miraculous mind-body-and-spirit transformation.

Immediately following the film, join Frank Ferrante in a humorous and heartfelt Q & A session. AWAKE: The Life of Yogananda SOUTHWEST PREMIERE
& KIRTAN CHANTING WITH MAS VIDAL
Directors: Paola di Florio and Lisa Leeman
Documentary Feature • USA/India/Brazil • 2014 • 89 min
Fri, May 30th 9:00am • Mary D. Fisher Theater

AWAKE: The Life of Yogananda is an unconventional biography spotlighting the legendary East Indian mystic who introduced yoga and meditation to the West in the conservative 1920s. Yogananda's classic best-seller "Autobiography of a Yogi" continues to reach millions worldwide and became the go-to book for countless seekers, including George Harrison, Russell Simmons and Steve Jobs (it was the only book he had on his iPad). Filmed over three years with the participation of 30 countries, this documentary examines the current consciousness of East and West, and also the world of yoga, both modern and ancient. Understanding Yogananda's vast influence helps explain why millions today have turned their attention inwards, bucking the temptations of the material world in pursuit of self-realization.

Immediately following the film, Mas Vidal, founder and director of the Dancing Shiva Center in Los Angeles will lead a kirtan of bhajans (devotional songs). Monks from Yogananda's Self-Realization Fellowship will also be in attendance.

Catalyzed by the passing of his dear buddy Steve Irwin, Australian producer Justin Lyons tracked down the world's leading alternative health and emotional healing experts to find cures for the incurable. Neale Donald Walsh, Dr. Joe Dispenza, Dr. Bradley Nelson and Nassim Haremein converge to deliver the most comprehensive choose-your-own-adventure road to recovery from all that ails humanity - trapped emotions, fears and unprocessed life experiences that countless people unknowingly hold in their bodies. Learn how to transcend limiting beliefs regarding family, abundance, health & longevity and loneliness that sabotage health and happiness. Before the film, audience members will be guided to identify their own trapped emotions in order to deepen their inner experience while viewing.

Immediately following the film, join Eva Maurice and emotional clearing practitioners to uncover inner peace, abundance, longevity and loving relationships in this powerful film/workshop one-two punch. Eva Maurice is a Spiritual Counselor, author of "40 Days of Self Love" and the upcoming book "Shakti Chicks...the Urban Girls Guide to Spiritual Living." A doctoral student of metaphysics, Eva's wisdom will deepen audience understanding of the emotional healing philosophy and show that emotional balance can be swift and virtually free. Be the captain of your emotional destiny.

Song Of The New Earth SOUTHWEST PREMIERE
& SOUND JOURNEY WITH THREE TREES
 Director: Ward Serrill • Documentary Feature • USA • 2014 • 88 min
Sat, May 31st 1:30pm • Sedona Creative Life Center

Song of the New Earth features the extraordinary life and work of country singer-turned-brain-scientist & shaman of sound, Tom Kenyon, as he journeys from his homeland of Orcas Island to the stage on Broadway, giant caves in the south of France, the golden-chandeliered symphony halls of Vienna and finally to the snowy peaks of Tibet. Along the way Song of the New Earth weaves in surreal events of this eccentric musician's life story and his struggle to reconcile unexplained paranormal experiences with his scientific understanding of reality, as it also explores Kenyon's nearly four-octave range voice that has earned him a worldwide following.

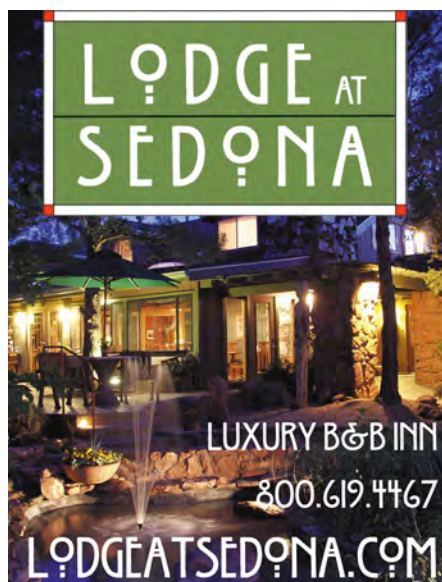

Immediately following the film, enjoy a multi-cultural sound healing journey with acclaimed multi-instrumentalist Three Trees. Through a combination of instruments, rhythms, healing frequencies and vibrations, Three Trees demonstrates how every cell in the body can be healed and balanced through sacred sound and vibration.
