

Our world is poised for a great shift. Filmmakers, now on the frontier of a global conscious movement, are speaking with their cameras, and ILLUMINATE provides these brilliant visionary filmmakers of our time a vehicle to enlighten our world.

The power of story is arguably the single-most affecting tool we have at our fingertips to shape the human experience. That is why ILLUMINATE supports conscious filmmakers to unlock the story within them that will forever change the world.

ILLUMINATE Film Festival is founded on the principle of awakening higher consciousness through film, expression and education. Join us as we raise funds to create opportunities for future media makers, industry leaders and visionaries.
