Welcome to ILLUMINATE 2017

Letter from the Executive Director

Dear ILLUMINATES,

As we roll out the red carpet for our fourth year with you, our mission remains simple: To elevate and empower humanity through cinema that transforms.

In a global political climate dominated by division, I find it more important than ever to become grounded again with my deepest Self. Perhaps you do too. In this year's lineup, may you find powerful tools for awakening and expansion. Together, may we heal division by first turning inward, finding within us a place of self-love, acceptance and compassion that once turned outward can manifest understanding, oneness and well-being for all.

Look no further for inspiration than this year's special programming focus on spiritual pioneers and the global movements they sparked. Discover new insights into the mind-body connection, music, technology, indigenous culture and homeopathy from one of our record nine world premieres. Soak in the wisdom of nationally renowned teachers like neuroscientist Dr. Joe Dispenza, futurist Barbara Marx Hubbard and peace troubadour James Twyman in our new Luminary Living Room Series.

As in prior years, help us welcome (and support) industry leaders at our Conscious Film Convergence, where we will host our first Filmmaker Lab to nurture new conscious films.

Our schedule is chock-full of film fun, and we've made movie marathoning easier than ever. Take the festival schedule with you wherever you go by downloading our new festival app.

Finally, when you see an ILLUMINATE volunteer, sponsor or donor at the festival, flash a smile of gratitude. I thank them from the bottom of my ever- expanding heart for their amazing dedication, conscious presence and support of this grand mission. They are the true stars.

Yours in the light of consciousness,

Danette Wolpert

Hare Krishna! is a documentary on the life of Srila Prabhupada – the 70-year-old Indian Swami who arrived in America without support or money in the turbulent 1960s. With his unflinching determination and faith, he ignited the worldwide spiritual phenomenon, known as the Hare Krishna movement. Suddenly thrust into the raging countercultural scene, Prabhupada speaks of the world's real need – a revolution in consciousness. He teaches that the way to find real happiness is by going within and connecting to your true self. This universal message resonates with more and more people, including musician George Harrison whose hit song "My Sweet Lord" features the Hare Krishna chant. From there, Prabhupada's movement explodes!

ARIZONA PREMIERE

Directors: SJ Chiro • Narrative Feature
USA • 2017 • 80 minutes

Saturday, June 3, 3:30 – 5:35 pm
Sedona Performing Arts Center—
Black Box Theater

Based on a true story, Lane is a teenager raised by a single hippie mother in the 1970s. That counterculture was formed by young adults escaping the constraints of their parents' social conformity. But what about their offspring, often raised outside of child-rearing conventions and without any viable alternatives? This beautiful, affecting drama captures the pathos of growing up subject to the whims of free-spirited grownups who themselves could use some adult supervision.

A love letter to the life and career of Harry Dean Stanton, who plays Lucky, the film is also a meditation on mortality, loneliness, spirituality and human connection. Cast members include David Lynch, Ron Livingston and Ed Begley Jr.

His Holiness shares his personal perspective and explores the persistent questions about his next reincarnation. The film includes interviews with Daniel Goleman, Richard Davidson, Matthieu Ricard, George W. Bush, members of the Dalai Lama's family, and features the music of Philip Glass.

USA • 2017 • 92 minutes

Sunday, June 4, 1:00 – 2:55 pm
Sedona Performing Arts Center—
Black Box Theater

The film follows filmmaker Kip Andersen (Cowspiracy) as he uncovers the secret to preventing and even reversing chronic diseases — and investigates why the nation's leading health organizations don't want us to know about it. The film reveals possibly the largest cover-up of our time. With the help of medical doctors, researchers, and consumer advocates, Anderson exposes the collusion and corruption in government and big business that are costing us trillions of healthcare dollars — and keeping us sick. Join Kip as he tracks down the most trusted American health nonprofit organizations to find out why these groups are staying silent. Audiences will be shocked to learn the insidious roles played by pharmaceutical companies, agribusiness, and processed animal food companies in the nation's health decline, especially in the most vulnerable communities. We will cheer at the transformation and recovery of those who take their health into their own hands.

GLOBAL SPIRIT: EARTH WISDOM FOR A WORLD IN CRISIS WORLD PREMIERE

Director: Stephen Olsson • Episodic Documentary
USA • 2017 • 57 minutes

Sunday, June 4, 10:00 am – 12:05 pm

Woven through compelling portraits of indigenous leaders, Earth Wisdom for a World in Crisis follows the Lakota Sioux's non-violent resistance at Standing Rock Reservation. Through the unique prism of indigenous cosmologies and native perspectives from all continents, this film weaves a vivid contrast between the bureaucratic, slow-moving "recognition" of indigenous peoples by the United Nations, and the political immediacy of the Dakota Access Pipeline protest movement. Global Spirit is a 12-episode series featuring hosts Carlos Santana and Cindy Blackman Santana.

A Q&A with director Stephen Olsson and producer Lorraine Hess follows.
